“WE CANNOT BE MORE CONNECTED TO OTHER PEOPLE THAN WE ARE TO OURSELVES.” -BRENE BROWN

If you are continually judging and criticizing yourself while trying to be kind to others, you are drawing artificial boundaries and distinctions that only lead to feelings of separation and isolation

Mindful Self-Compassion (MSC) is the ability to be present in the face of challenges while we support and motivate ourselves in the same way we would do for a good friend. MSC is a source of inner strength and resilience. The MSC course teaches concrete practical skills for daily life that will help you to respond to difficult moments with calm, kindness, and understanding as well as becoming more able to motivate, stand up for yourself and set limits.

This version of MSC training includes 9 sessions on Sunday mornings:

- 8 core course sessions X 3 hours each (24 hours total) on Sundays at 9am ICT (Thailand time) starting Sunday January 15, plus
- A 3-hour retreat session after the 5th session (see schedule below)

It's proven to help! The program integrates cutting-edge insights about growth and thriving based on neuroscience, positive psychology, evolutionary psychology, and human development. Hundreds of peer-reviewed studies demonstrate that self-compassion is strongly associated with increased resilience and emotional wellbeing, less anxiety, depression and stress, maintenance of healthy habits such as diet and exercise, and satisfying personal relationships. And it's easier than you think.

Why Online? Taking the course online empowers you to:

- ☺ Participate from the convenience and comfort of your own home, and
- ☺ Connect with a diverse community of participants from across Asia-Pacific, and
- ☺ Learn from the experts: this course is led by Siri Chandler and Ben Weinstein, PhD, two of Asia-Pacific's most experienced and skilled teachers of secular mindfulness and self-compassion.

MINDFUL SELF-COMPASSION TRAINING COURSE

ONLINE JANUARY 15 – MARCH 26, 2023

Who can participate?: Any adult located in the Asia-Pacific region is welcome to register! No previous experience with mindfulness or meditation is required

Program activities include meditation, short talks, experiential exercises, group discussion, and home practices. Please look at MSC as an experiential training and not a class. The main goal is for participants to directly experience and learn practices that evoke self-compassion in daily life. Prior to registering, participants should plan to attend every session and practice mindfulness and self-compassion at least 20-30 minutes per day on their own throughout the program.

We suggest that participants read one or more of the following books before or during the program (but it's not required):
